WESTERLY'S DISTRICT NURSE

Has Spent an Active and Useful Half Year—Reports at Annual Meeting—Italian Society Observes Columbus Day—Loom in Narrow Fabric Mill to be Demonstrated—Personal Items.

The champion Westery team of the Rhode Island-Connecticut baseball league will play a benefit game with an all-star team selected by Eddie O'Donnell, who has played first base for White Rock. The game will be for the benefit of Lloyd Noyes, the popular third baseman of Westery, who has been incapacitated since the game with White Rock on Labor day, when he sustained a very severe sprain of the left ankle while running for second base. He recovered from this injury somewhat and he was expected back in the game when he was taken sick. He has not been able to do any work since he was injured and his friends in the game have decided to give him some assistance, and the benefit game is the result.

The pupils of the schools of Westery are active in the competition for the awards of the prizes offered by the former Providence Public Schools. The results of which have just been announced, second prizes were awarded to local pupils as follows: Grace Ellis, Pleasant street school; John Nye, Park avenue school. Third prizes were given to: Semide Boulet, White Rock school; Amy Chapman, Avondale school; Hope Noyes, Pleasant street school. Fourth prizes to: Joseph Ashworth, Pleasant street school; Eben Crockett, Park avenue school; Eddie Ferraro, Pleasant street school; Jennie Ferraro, Pleasant street school. Honorable mention went to Frank Gomena and Mary Nigrello.

Frank L. Hanley, who formerly practiced law in Westery, was the cause of a tilt in the democratic city assembly convention in Providence Tuesday evening. Robert F. Carroll defeated the former Westery lawyer by a vote of 36 to 19.

There was a celebration of the 583rd anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus in Westery Tuesday evening under the auspices of Societa Succorso Principessa Margherita. The members of the society and many other Italians formed a procession in Canal street and headed by the Westery band, marched through the principal streets and back to the place of rendezvous. Then followed a general jollification which continued until after midnight. The paraders carried the stars and stripes and Italian flags. All along the line of march there was a generous display of flags and considerable red fire.

The annual meeting of the Westery Visiting Nurse association was held Tuesday afternoon in the assembly room of the Memorial building with a large attendance of members. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Charles Perry, the president, and the minutes of the previous meeting as read by Miss Helen Segar, secretary, were approved.

The secretary's annual report showed the work done by the association during the past six months and gave an intelligent and interesting perspective of the association.

The report of the visiting nurse, Miss Estelle Murray, showed that 425 visits had been made and that 43 cases had received attention.

The election of officers followed, which resulted in the re-election of the present board: Mrs. Charles Perry, president; Mrs. Frank Sherman, first vice president; Mrs. Charles P. Cottrell, second vice president; Miss Helen Segar, secretary; Mrs. George N. Burdick, treasurer. Mrs. F. C. Buffum, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following names as a board of management and they were declared elected: For one year, Miss Harriet E. Cottrell, Mrs. Clifford Campbell, Mrs. Charles J. Butler, Rev. Samuel H. Davis, Mrs. F. C. Buffum; for two years, Mrs. George H. Utter, Mrs. Arthur Cottrell, Rev. S. H. Cattell, Mrs. L. J. Phillips, Mrs. G. F. Nichols, Mrs. William A. Hillard, Mrs. D. McG. Newell; for three years, Mrs. Eugene Stillman, Mrs. Henry Segar, Mrs. Charles P. Cottrell, Rev. Peter McOscar, Charles Perry, Mrs. William Clark and Mrs. F. C. Pagan. Mrs. William A. Hillard, chairman of the committee on revision of by-laws, made report which was tabled for future action.

Charles Perry, chairman of the committee to secure a charter from the state legislature, made report by reading the form of charter for which request would be made. The committee was given full power to procure the charter.

The report of the treasurer showed receipts with balance on hand six months ago to be $1,232.28. The expenses for the same period were $555.49 and a cash balance of $676.79, which with the $1,005.12 received on tag day, makes a total of $1,681.91.

Local Laconics.
Arthur Perry, Jr., of Boston and Mrs. Perry, recently married in Salem, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry in Westery.

The Shrah Zodik congregation in semi-annual session elected these officers: David Ribner, president; Samuel Burnstein, vice president; Philip Goldberg, secretary; Lewis Solomon, treasurer; Louis Duetch and Morris Fullerton, trustees.

Senator Louis W. Arnold, Representative Albert H. Langworthy, Howard Pender, James A. Walsh, William Clark and Walter P. Dixon are the delegates from Westery to the republican state convention to be held in Providence today (Wednesday).

One of the looms in the new Westery Narrow Fabric mill was in operation Tuesday afternoon, simply to show the prospective stockholders the quality and quantity of goods that can be produced. The machinery is being set up as rapidly as possible and the mill will be soon in active operation.

JEWETT CITY

Crowley-Holmes Wedding on Tuesday—Baptist Church Appoints Delegate to Mystic Convention.

At St. Mary's church on Tuesday morning Miss Frances L. Holmes of this place was united in marriage with John F. Crowley of Palmer, Mass., the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. H. Fitzmaurice. They were attended by Miss Elizabeth Noddo of Hartford and the groom's brother, James F. Crowley, of Worcester. The bride wore a traveling dress of gray cloth and black picture hat with white plume. The bridesmaid wore a gown of gray and hat to match. After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Crowley left on the 11:19 train for a trip to Portland and Westbrook, Me., and will reside for the present in Boston. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold watch. The groom's gift to his brother was a gold scarf pin set with pearls. There were beautiful gifts, including money, silver, cut glass, furniture and pictures. Mrs. Crowley is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Holmes and for five years has been employed at the local telephone exchange, where she was always very courteous and pleasant to the patrons of the service. Mr. Crowley is superintendent for the Fred T. Ley Construction company, Springfield, and was well known here when the electric system between Central and Westery was in process of construction. Mr. Crowley's father, P. J. Crowley, of Palmer, Mass., and a brother, Dr. J. T. Crowley, of Adams, Mass., were in town to attend the wedding.

Delegates to Mystic Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whiteman, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Phillips and Miss Mary Phillips are the delegates from the Baptist church in Westery to the Mystic Convention.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Al. Gately has returned to her home in New York after spending the summer with the Misses Driscoll, 10 North Main street.

Dr. W. H. Gane was in Abington Tuesday attending the Windham court conference, where he delivered a address.

Miss Gertrude Ward and Miss Eol Browning of Leffingwell spent Monday and Tuesday with Miss Marti Church.

Open Meeting of Men's Club.

The Men's club of the Congregational church held an open meeting in the church on Tuesday evening to welcome the men of the church and other churches in the town and Lisbon were invited. A large number of men attended. An organ prelude by F. S. Leonard opened the service, and the meeting was addressed by Walter W. Decker, pastor of the Arlington Baptist church in Providence and secretary of the federation of churches and religious forces of Rhode Island.

40TH ANNIVERSARY.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Smith of Westminster, Surprise Them on Ruby Wedding.

Greatly to their surprise the home of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Smith, at Westminster, was invaded on Saturday by friends from Hartford, New York, Pawtucket, Waterford, East Greenwich, Howard, Yantic and Norwich. It being their fortieth wedding anniversary.

While some of the guests entertained the couple outside for a short walk under pretext of viewing the autumnal scenery, the remainder with the assistance of their son, who was home for the anniversary, quickly decorated the parlor and dining room with beautiful foliage, and brought forth from some unknown hiding place an elegant sideboard, which they set up and decorated with cut glass, china and silver, the gifts of those who had been summer guests to the household.

The table was decorated with vases of sweet peas and nasturtiums. Herbert Leonard prepared an excellent oyster dinner. The toasts were numerous, and well suited to the anniversary.

After the guests had assembled on the 40th lawn, the organ was brought outside and there followed a most enjoyable afternoon of music and recitations. In a short intermission Miss Katharine Plinger of New York recited a beautiful poem entitled "Their Ruby Wedding." At the close she presented both Mr. and Mrs. Smith a ruby set in gold in the form of a pin.

Just before the guests left refreshments with cake and candy were served, and the nearby guests returned to their homes, while the rest remained over Sunday.

Those "Arnold" Goods

The "Arnold" Knit Diaper

Elastic and yielding, very absorbent, washes easily. This garment is so shaped that it fits the body snugly at the waist, and is large, roomy and baggy at the seat, where irritations, eruptions and inflammations generally exist. The fabric is very soft and fine, making this a common-sense diaper.

The "ARNOLD" Inside Squares are used with these. Sizes 18, 20, 22 and 24 square inches.

"Arnold" Knit Vests

are a most comfortable and attractive garment for the child up to five years of age. They are made of the finest of the "Arnold" knit fabrics, are exceptionally soft and pleasant to the touch, cut in perfect fitting forms, prettily finished with silk crocheted edges, and all with the special "Arnold" patent armhole sleeves. They are so elastic and porous that ventilation is assured. Easily washed and won't shrink.

The double edge gives double the wear of any like garments.

Altogether, one of the most desirable of the "Arnold" specialties—50c to $1.25.

Call for copy of the "Arnold" new catalogue.

Grand Auction Sale OF HOUSE LOTS

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14th, at 1.30 P. M.,

Sees the Opening of a Land Sale that will attract the attention of all interested in values of Residential property in Norwich.

On that day, will be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, the well known SLATER PROPERTY, which has lately been sub-divided into 42 Choice Residential Lots, and named

"Fairlawn Park."

It is situated in Norwich's most Exclusive Residential District, only a few minutes' walk from the business centre, and on Broadway, Slater Avenue, Broad and Cedar Streets, and a new street named Elmwood Avenue has just been laid out through the property.

"Fairlawn Park" has all city improvements, water, sewer, gas and electric lights, while the streets are graded, sidewalked and curbed.

The Mansion on the property, said to have cost over $250,000, will also be sold, regardless of cost or value, either to remain on the property or to be removed.

It positively will be sold at some price, and builders and others interested are invited to examine the inside any day before sale. The inside work on this Mansion is said to have cost more and be more artistically finished than any other house in the State.

On Wednesday evening, October 13th, from 7.00 to 10.30 p. m., the house will be illuminated, and the Public is invited to inspect same.

BAND CONCERT by TUBBS' MILITARY BAND, from 7.30 p. m. until 10 p. m. Wednesday Evening, on the lawn. We shall also exhibit in the Mansion the Pianos and the Beautiful Presents that we shall give away FREE the Days of the Sale.

Never such a sale as this in the history of Norwich. It is property that has a recognized and standard value. No man who knows anything of Norwich's Geography can look on this spot and doubt the absolute truth of this assertion, and real estate circles in Norwich never expected to see the day when it would be sold at auction and on easy terms. The lots are all high, dry and level, and offer the opportunity which has long been sought by the homeseeker and investor to buy high class, restricted city property at their OWN PRICE and on easy terms.

We wish to have the Public come to this sale, to see the great improvements, and as an advertisement we are going to give away FREE $2,000 worth of Valuable Souvenirs, including 3 Upright Pianos. These are Absolutely Free to those attending the Sale. You do not have to purchase anything or spend one cent to receive same. (See small bills for particulars.)

A few lots will be reserved for sale Friday and Saturday at same hour, but attend first day's sale and secure first choice.

Sale will be held rain or shine. In case of rain, shelter will be provided.

EASY TERMS!

Only 10 per cent. down, 10 per cent. within 10 days, the balance in monthly payments extending over a period which will be announced before sale. The property will be suitably restricted.

For further particulars, inquire of owner on the property. JOHN J. LINSKEY, Owner.

L. H. GREEN, 353 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y., will conduct sale.
